TERMS & CONDITIONS

By filling & submitting this form, you understand and agree that:

1. That you are applying for the Probationary membership of Pinkishe Foundation on the basis of your own interest and initiative & you agree to follow the rules and regulations of Pinkishe in letter and spirit.
2. That should your application be approved, you will be taken as a Probationary Member of Pinkishe for a maximum period of 3 months from the date of application. During this period you will offer your time and efforts on voluntary basis and try and understand the working methods of Pinkishe Foundation.
3. At the end of the period, you may decide to join Pinkishe as a registered Associate Member. You will need to separately apply for the same. It will be on the description of the Pinkishe Management to accept or reject the application as deemed fit and without citing any reasons whatsoever. The validity of Associate membership is 1 year and you will need to renew the membership before expiry, failing which your membership will automatically cease without notice.
4. In case you do not file for the registered membership, your probationary membership will automatically cease and you will respectfully leave / or be respectfully removed from the whatsapp or any other groups you may have been added to. You will need to return any property of pinkishe lying with you within 7 days of termination
5. During the period of your membership, you may get privy to confidential information and you agree to not share it with anybody outside the organisation.
6. You understand that it is an honorary post/membership and no remuneration is payable against your work/cooperation, though out of the pocket expenses may be paid on the basis of your written records and valid original bills against the same subject to prior written approval.
7. That your nomination is done on the basis of a good faith and you are required to work in the direction of growth of Pinkishe and women empowerment, in conformity to the rules/instructions laid out by the local and/or Central leadership.
8. That you are required to remember that you derive your power from Pinkishe Foundation hence whatever you do or get other members to do need to be in conformity of the objectives and high values; and meeting the highest standards of ethics and conduct followed at Pinkishe.
9. That you are required to communicate with your fellow members as well as the higher post holders in the most professional/ethical code of conduct and anything that may be derogatory or defaming to anyone will not be acceptable from you and will be treated as non-compliance/breach.
10. That you are required to maintain a healthy and harmonious behaviour with each one in your contact within or outside Pinkishe and also to support each other for the up-liftment and progress in all positive ways.
11. That you are required to maintain written records of all financial transactions done for and within Pinkishe and you are required to get the records reviewed by the central leadership from time to time.
12. That you are required to discuss and take approvals, about any major decision or policy changing step, from your Local or Central Leadership.
13. Pinkishe is an evolving organisation and its rules/regulations are also subject to evolving in accordance to the time and need. Not all rules and regulations are properly defined at this stage. In such case, you are expected to doubly check you acts before doing them and maintain the highest level of proprietary.
14. That Central leadership reserves it's right to terminate you without serving any show-cause notice. You may also leave Pinkishe with immediate effect by informing the local/central leadership in written and after returning any property loaned to you/in possession with you.
